Five things we loved about...

The Waters of MARS

WARNING! LOADS OF SCARES THIS ISSUE!

1 The Doctor

Brave and alone, our hero was on brilliant form. We cheered when he decided to help the crew on Bowie Base One!

2 The Monsters

The Flood were probably the scariest creatures ever seen in Doctor Who. Fantastic!

3 Ood Sigma

The return of an old Ood friend at the end was a real shock. But what does this mean for the Doctor?

4 Adelaide

We thought she made a great companion for the Doctor!

5 Gadget!

Although the Doctor said he wasn't fond of robots like Gadget, we thought he was cool. Gadget-gadget!

TOP 10 WATERY MOMENTS

10 Soggy spaceship

After flying over London and smashing into Big Ben, the Slitheen spaceship dived into the River Thames. What a spectacular splashdown!

9 Raining in reverse

Just before the Judoon's H_2O Scoop teleported Martha's hospital to the moon, the rain outside suddenly started going upwards into a big storm cloud. Weird!

8 Danger drive

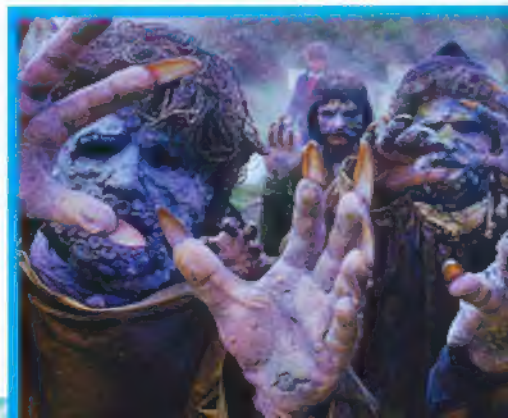
Journalist Jo Yakashima threatened Luke Rattigan, so he took control of her car using its ATMOS device and drove it into a river!

7 Power shower

On New Earth, Rose walked into one of the hospital lifts, little realising she was about to get completely drenched with smelly disinfectant! Brrrrrrr!

6 Sea monsters

These blood-sucking Haemovores evolved from humans. They rose from the sea, on the hunt for victims!



5 Drowning on dry land

When grumpy Lynley tried to stop Shakespeare's new play going ahead, Lilith the Carrionite caused his lungs to fill with water, drowning the poor man!

4 Deadly sprinklers

Cornered by guards, this lone Dalek activated the sprinklers, then fired its weapon at the wet ground. The water conducted the energy and electrocuted the guards!

3 Water bombs

When the Doctor detonated the Racnoss's own bauble bombs, torrents of water came pouring in from the Thames and flooded her underground lair!

2 All steamed up

There's only thing to do when a huge, fire-breathing Pyrovile comes after you. Chuck a big bucket of water over it to damp down its flames!

1 The Flood

On Mars, the Doctor had a chilling encounter with a man who passed on a yucky infection to others through water.

Adelaide Brook

Meet the brave woman who helps the Doctor on Mars

Who is she?

When Adelaide was 10 years old, the Daleks stole Earth. Her parents were exterminated, and when a Dalek looked through Adelaide's window and saw her there, it stared at her and then flew off. It made her want to follow it out into the stars one day.

Living on Mars

In 2059, Adelaide Brooke is the captain of Bowie Base One, on Mars. She and her crew are the first off-world colonists on the planet. With Earth's climate being gradually destroyed and the human race facing extinction, they are on a mission to find another planet to inhabit.

Like the Doctor, Adelaide is good at running!

Adelaide decides to evacuate the base when some of the crew are taken over by the Flood.

What happens?

The Doctor knows that Adelaide's death is a fixed point in time – and that she is meant to die on the Mars space base. But when the Time Lord decides to change time and save her, Adelaide knows that without her dying, the future of the human race could be altered forever.

WORDS BY LEANNE GILL

LOADS OF INFO EVERY WEEK!

FLOOD WARNING!

So what exactly happens to the Bowie Base crew?

Andy before...

When Andy bites into a carrot grown on Mars, he is infected with an alien virus and water floods out of him! Yuck!

The virus loves humans because they are 60 per cent water, which makes them the perfect hosts!

... And after!

The virus soon infects more of the crew and uses Maggie to wake the Flood.

The creatures want to get to the watery planet Earth, but before they can, they are destroyed along with Bowie Base One. Phew!

Maggie is infected

Argh!

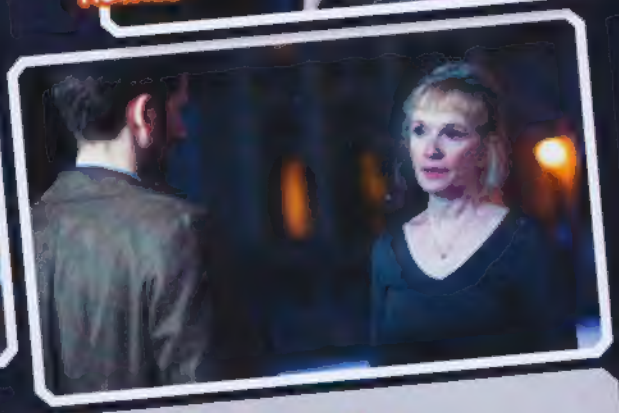
MONSTER SCARES!

Were you scared of the Flood? Let us know by emailing dwa@bbc.co.uk, putting 'THE FLOOD' as the subject. Send us pics, too – we'll print our favourites in a future issue!

Teaming up with a Time Lord

To protect Earth and destroy the virus, Adelaide is forced to blow up the base.

Arriving home!



Adelaide's family

The Doctor tells Adelaide that she will inspire her granddaughter, Susie, who will one day be the pilot of the first lightspeed ship to Proxima Centauri. Her descendants will travel through the stars and even start a new race!

Sja
FACTS!
This SCARY SCIENTIST from another world got trapped between dimensions during his planet's civil wars.

MARS

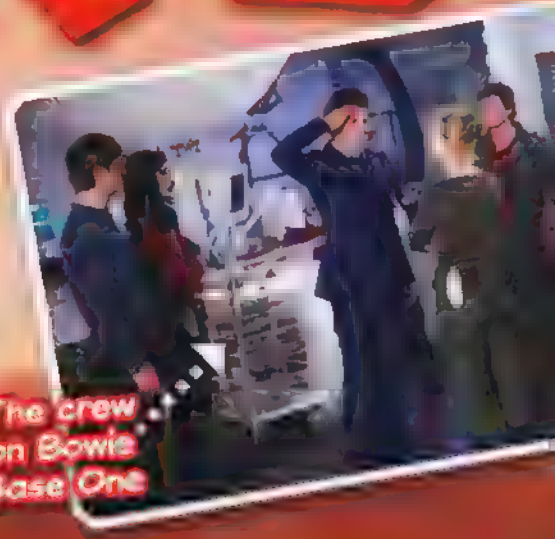
Should you visit or should you avoid? Read on and then decide!

Where is it?

Mars is the second smallest planet in our solar system. It's often called the Red Planet because of the iron oxide on its surface, which gives it a reddish colour.

It's one of Earth's closest neighbours but is still 40 million miles from home.

A robot can be a big help!

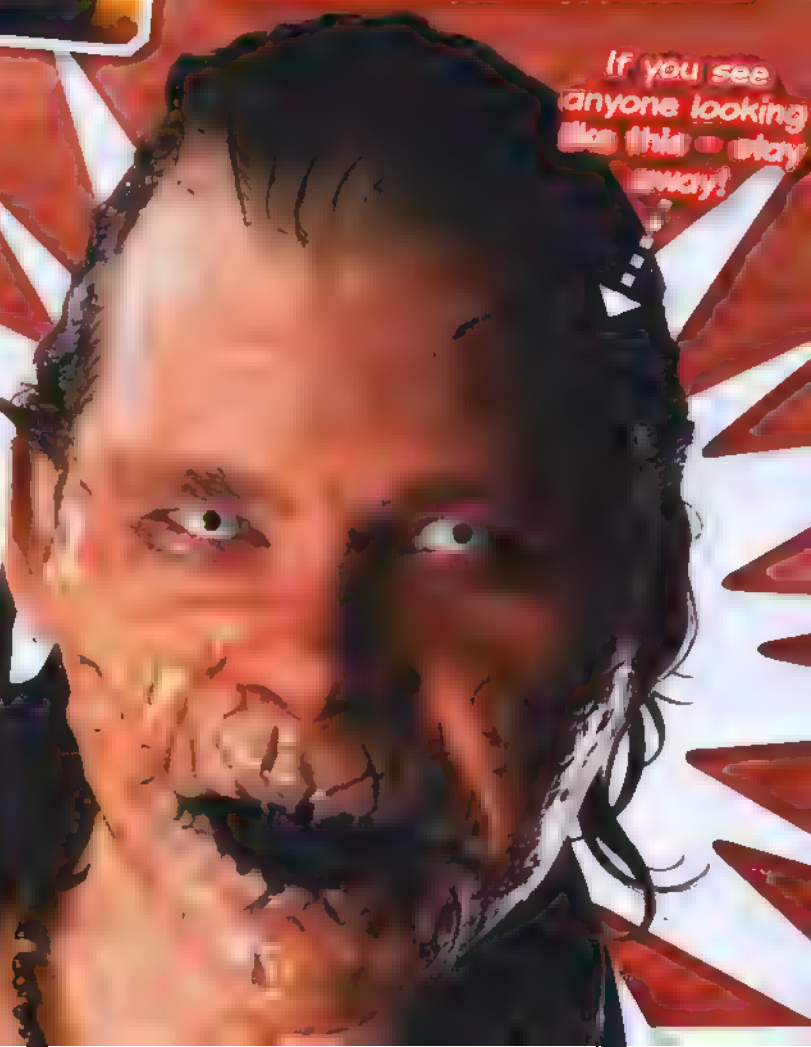


The crew on Bowie Base One

Getting there

Every pound of weight flown from Earth to Mars uses three tonnes of fuel, so it's quite expensive to get there! Unless you have a TARDIS, of course!

There was once a great Martian race called the Ice Warriors, who built an empire out of snow.



If you see anyone looking like this – stay away!

ADVICE FOR TIME TRAVELLERS

AVOID Mars in 2059 due to a water-based virus that will attack the crew of Bowie Base One.

In 2003, a team of scientists were the first off-world colonists to settle on Mars. They built their home in the Green Crater, on top of a giant underground glacier.

DID YOU KNOW?

The massive, scaly, green Ice Warriors met the Doctor many years ago.

An Ice Warrior

It's possible that the dangerous virus caused the Ice Warriors to leave their home planet.

Mars holiday checklist

If you're planning a trip to Mars, don't forget to take these really important things with you:

1. Plenty of food – the journey there takes nine months!
2. Bottled water – it's much safer
3. An Ancient North Martian phrase book
4. A spacesuit for walks on the surface
5. A remote-controlled robot and the Doctor – perfect travelling companions

COMPETITION RULES:

The closing date and time is midnight on 2 December 2009.

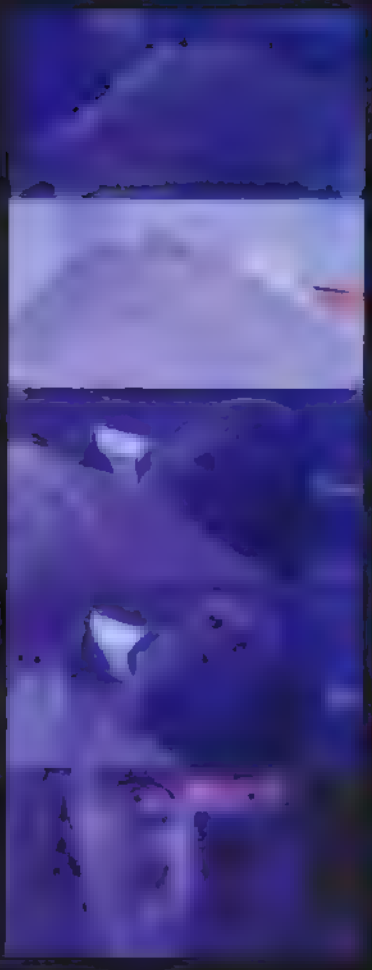
I predict that I will not be appearing in this little corner for much longer

LOADS OF FACTS EVERY WEEK!

The Doctor will change his appearance later this year!

Actor Sylvester McCoy played the Doctor from 1987-1989, then again in 1996

THE SEVENTH DOCTOR



What was he like?

The Seventh Doctor seemed like a bit of a clown at first, but he turned out to be one of the most mysterious and interesting Doctors of all! He travelled the universe with his friend, Ace, showing her that a Time Lord's life wasn't always simple.

What did he wear?

He had a brightly-patterned jumper, a tatty old hat and an umbrella with a big red question mark on it.

Why did he change?

A human doctor, Grace Holloway, tried to save his life when he was accidentally injured. But she didn't realise he had aliens inside, so he had to regenerate.

NEXT WEEK

DOCTOR · WHO DOOMSILK
It's thousands of years in the future and the TARDIS approaches an unknown world in the middle of a distant galaxy!
What a beautiful planet, Doctor! It looks like a giant pearl floating in space! What's it called?
No idea, Heather. Let's take a closer look!
Story TREVOR BAXENDALE
Art JOHN ROSS
Colours ALAN CRADDOCK

Minutes later, on the planet's surface...
Isn't this great? A whole new world. I love new!
And the planet must be really small, because we can see the horizon curving.

I've never seen anything like this.
It seems to be made of silk!

But what kind of silk. It's almost like spiders' web... Uh oh!
Doctor! Look!
SLLURRRRKKKKK!

Creatures rise up and chase the time travellers!
Doctor, what are they, besides unfriendly?
Haven't a clue! But they look strangely familiar... And they seem to be part of the planet itself!

They must be made of the same substance – the web silk that covers this whole world!

SSSUURRRRRR

Hold on! They look a bit like us!

The ground's giving way! Look out!

Wah!

SLLURRRRRRRR

Beneath the surface of the planet...

We were lucky – the low gravity saved us from any broken bones. And we seem to have lost our cobwebby friends. Let's explore!

Yeouch!

Soon the Doctor and Heather stumble upon something horrible!

It's a giant spider!

And it's dead. Very dead. It's been here for a long, long time...

These puddles are very strange – some sort of luminous slime...
Are these stalactites?

Hmm. Looks more like the remains of other visitors – but cocooned in web silk. Perhaps the spider was saving them for dinner.
Eew!

Or maybe they're sacrificial victims, offered up in worship to their Spider God...

But how could the spider's web take on a life of its own? It doesn't make sense!

Unless this slime has something to do with it. It has very unusual properties. It's no wonder those cobweb creatures are acting so strangely.
Doctor!

Urgh! They've got me!
Hang in there, Heather!
SLOOTRRRK!
Only one thing for it. I'll have to test a theory with a little practical experiment!
And soon...
VREEEEEEEEEEE!
Out you come!
Oh, that was horrible! But how come you're all slimy?
It's the slime that the creatures worship! I think it killed the spider but gave life to its web silk - and now the creatures have spread across the whole of this planet.
They won't touch anything connected to the slime - so start spreading it all over yourself like I did.
Yuck!
Later, back at the TARDIS...
I get that covering ourselves with that stuff stops them attacking, Doctor. But I still don't understand why they look a bit like you and me!
They have no natural form, Heather. They just copy whatever creatures land on their world - like us!
We'll leave them be - and hopefully no one else will land here by mistake!

PRESS RELEASE – Thursday 19th November, 9am

Monsters from Mars

This week's Doctor Who Adventures magazine is all about The Waters of Mars. We investigate the planet Mars and find out if it is a place you should visit or avoid. If you were to visit Mars with the Doctor what would you take? Find out with Doctor Who Adventures' essential checklist.

Meet the brave woman who helps the Doctor – Adelaide Brooke. Discover who she is and how she ended up at Bowie Base.

This week's Top 10 is all about watery moments. Water bombs, raining in reverse and sea monsters; who will come top in this slippery countdown?

All this plus…

- Find out how well you know The Waters of Mars in this week's quiz
- A Doctor Who note book and pencil
- Claim a free Dalek rucksack
- Part 1 of life-size Doctor Who poster
- Loads of cool goodies to win!
- Subscription offer – subscribe today and get two free DVDs

Issue 142 of Doctor Who Adventures magazine is out Thursday 19 November, price £2.99!

Doctor Who sits within BBC Worldwide's Global Brands division and has a commercial portfolio across DVD, merchandising, digital download and publishing (magazines, books and audiobooks). The show is available internationally from 93 broadcasters in 47 territories, from Spain to Serbia, Israel to Iceland. Since the new series began in 2005, over 3 million DVDs, over 1.5 million adult titles from BBC Books and 1.3 million children's books from Penguin and over 600,000 audiobooks have been sold, while 1.5m people have toured the Doctor Who Touring Exhibition. The brand is consistently one of the UK's top ten licenses, and the Doctor Who Annual 2009 was the number 2 best-selling annual in the Children's Bookscan charts. Children's magazine Doctor Who Adventures sells 57,000 copies every week, making it the bestselling children's title in terms of retail sales value, while downloads of the series regularly reach number one on iTunes. With the arrival of the 11th Doctor, played by Matt Smith, BBC Worldwide is currently looking at a range of commercial products to extend audiences enjoyment beyond the television programme.
